

Letters, Applications and Invitations

• Letter Writing

Letter writing is a skill which was practiced by almost everyone few decades ago. There are several types of letters. They may be personal, official or business letters, but in each case they are written in accordance with some set rules.

Every letter has several parts and it is important to follow the correct format. Any omission is liable to effect the quality of the letter. The parts of a letter are given below:

- a. address of the writer along with the date of writing
- b. salutation or greeting
- c. body of the letter
- d. subscription or the close of the letter
- e. signature
- f. address on the envelope or postcard.

A chart which shows proper salutations and subscriptions is given here for guidance:

	ADDRESSEES	SALUTATIONS	SUBSCRIPTIONS
Informal letters	Relatives	My dear (relation),	Yours affectionately,
	Friends	My dear (name),	Yours sincerely,
	Acquaintances	Dear / Mr. / Mrs. / Ms.	Yours truly,
Formal letters	Strangers	Sir / Madam, Dear Sir / Madam,	Regards,
	Officers	Sir / Madam,	Yours obediently,
	Editors of Newspapers	Sir / Madam,	Yours truly,
	Business concerns	Dear Sir,	Regards,

Letters are usually of two types:

1. Informal letters: Informal letters are written to relations and intimate friends in an easy and conversational style.
2. Formal letters: Formal letters are official letters, written for different purposes like;

to make a complaint, to request for something, to make an inquiry, to apply for a job, etc.

Parts of a Letter

- a. Writer's address and date: Writer's address is normally written at the top of the letter as heading which informs the readers from where the letter has been written. Just below the writer's address comes the date when the letter is written. The date must be written in either of the following ways:

January 1, 2017

1st January, 2017

Students should always remember to put a comma before the year. Omission of punctuation marks shows the carelessness of the writer.

- b. Salutation: In this part of the letter we greet the person whom we address. The words should be used according to the status of the addressee and the degree of friendship or intimacy that the writer enjoys with him. Students should refer to the given chart.
- c. Body of the letter: It is the main part of the letter and may contain a number of paragraphs. The opening sentence should be of general nature and may indicate the continuity of correspondence with the addressee. Some suitable opening sentences which may be used according to the occasion are:

- i. It is quite a long time since I heard from you.
- ii. I was very glad to receive your letter.
- iii. My joy knew no bounds when I learnt of your success...
- iv. I am much pained to hear that ...
- v. I am sorry to inform you that ...
- vi. You will be pleased to know that ...
- vii. Thank you very much for your letter ...

The letter should be closed with a proper phrase. One of the following phrases may be used according to the occasion:

- i. With best regards,
- ii. With love and best wishes to all at home,
- iii. With best wishes,
- iv. Hoping to see you soon,
- v. Hoping for an early reply,
- vi. Hoping to hear from you soon,

- vii. Thanking you,
- d. Subscription: After closing the body of the letter, we put subscription or close of the letter at the bottom of the left hand corner of the page. Students should refer to the given chart for using appropriate subscription.
- e. Signature: This must come below the subscription as:
Yours truly,
Ahmad Ali
- f. Address on the envelope or postcard: It is written on the envelope or the back of the postcard. We write:
- i. the name of the person in the first line
 - ii. the name of the house and the street or the name of the village in the second line
 - iii. the name of the city/district in the last line

The world has progressed very much in the field of science. If we want to keep pace with it, we must keep our knowledge of science up-to-date. Everyone should know the basics of science so I would advise you to study science at least up to matriculation level. It will broaden the horizon of choice that you can make for higher studies
